The 1830 Lawrence Co., TN, census, shows two females born between 1820-1825 (aged 5-10) living in the Carter Cannon household. They may or may not be daughters, as another couple was living with them. The man was aged 40-50 (born between 1780-1790), older than Carter Cannon. The woman was younger than Sarah, born between 1800-1810, or aged 20-30.

Conditional certif. 129, TX general Land Office, shows Carter Cannon emigrated to Texas in October 1841. [Also Uncond. certif. 334, 4 Nov 1844; field notes for surveys in 1844, 1851; Patents #61 (16 Jan 1856) and #69 (10 Dec 1857), Vol. 8; show him in Cass Co.] Land records from Cass Co. and Tarrant Co., plus tax records, show him in Tarrant Co. by the mid-1850s.

In Cass Co., TX, Carter Cannon had 320 acres located 11 miles S.W. of Linden, the county seat, Book 110, page 836, Abstract #221, 222.

Carter Cannon filed for his share of the Russel Cannon estate after Jane Cannon's death, p. 73, Pendleton District, S. C., Deeds 1790-1806, compiled by Betty Willie, Southern Historical Press, Easley, S.C. (pub. date not known).

6 Apr 1969 letter from Marchbanks descendant, a Jim McD(rest of name can't be read) states that Carter Cannon was an invalid for 40 years and also prosperous.

The Yalobusha County History by the Heritage Committee of the Yalobusha Historical Society, MS, 1982, under entry for Dr. Felix Grundy (p. number not shown on photocopy), states: "In 1833 a crippled man named Carter Cannon lived at the Perry place south O'tucelofa now by Dr. Lewis Carter Cannon sold his occupant to A.W.P. Ussary, Ussary to Allison Marrison. It passed through the hands of Kirmins and Barber. Carter Cannon settled the N.W. 1/4 of S. 4T11 R4 the Robbinson farm. G. Humphreys also lived on this place in 1835, then Cannon in 1836, the year of the Pontotac land sales. [This passage transcribed exactly as written; the writing is not clear.]

Also see the YALOBUSHA PIONEER, Vol. 17, #4, Winter 1992, published by the Yalobusha County Historical Society, P.O. Box 258, Coffeeville, MS 38922-0258, "Comments on the Early History of Water Valley, North Mississippi Herald, author unknown, 04 Aug 1938, p. 15 (pp. 14-18): "In the fall of 1834, Mr. Carton [sic] Cannon put up a cabin on the ground now occupied by the Shaw Foundry and about the same time, John Barnes, a son-in-law of Mr. Cannon, made an improvement where Mr. A. Tabor now resides..." The area of Mr. Tabor's house was actually in Lafayette Co. , MS, until "a few years ago" -- from 1938. It appears from the article, although it's not clear, that Carter Cannon's land was in the vicinity of Water Valley and John S. Barns's land was 2-3 miles away in the vicinity of Washington.

CHILD 2 - Mary Cannon

According to notes written by Richard Jay Doyle, Jr., given to his daughter, Dianne Doyle Stevens, distevens@comcast.net, provided to Cecilie Gaziano, cgaziano1@gmail.com, on 07 Sep 2014, there was a daughter Mary, who died young.

The 1830 Lawrence Co., TN, census shows two females born between 1820-1825 (aged 5-10) living in the Carter Cannon household. These are likely to be Mary and Rhoda.

The 1840 Yalobusha Co., MS, census shows 1 female born 1820/1825. Since it is known that Mary Cannon died young, she must have died before the 1840 census, and the young female in the 1840 census must be Rhoda.

CHILD 3 - Rhoda Cannon

According to notes written by Richard Jay Doyle, Jr., given to his daughter, Dianne Doyle Stevens, distevens@comcast.net, provided to Cecilie Gaziano, cgaziano1@gmail.com, on 07 Sep 2014, there was a daughter Rhoda, who married Jesse H. Kelly and was killed in a storm that blew away her house. A log hit her. This took place near Fort North Village Creek, Texas.

The 1830 Lawrence Co., TN, census shows two females born between 1820-1825 (aged 5-10) living in the Carter Cannon household. These are Mary and Rhoda.

The 1840 Yalobusha Co., MS, census shows 1 female born 1820/1825, who must be Rhoda.

1860 Census of Harrison Co., TX, p. 53/517, 350/337, lines 37-40, shows a J. R. Cannon, who appears to be the son of Carter and Sarah: (town of Marshall)

The 1840 Yalobusha, MS, census does not show this child, who would have been about 9 if born c1831 -- age 19 in 1850 census. He is shown in the 1850 Cass Co., TX, census. That census does not show his age clearly. It is either 13 or 19. If aged 13 then he was born c1837. The 1850 TX census also does not give relationships of individuals in the family, but the other children shown are known to be children of Carter and Sarah. Nothing more is known about him. Carter Cannon, John R. Cannon, and Elijah C. Cannon do not mention James in probate/estate documents. Perhaps he died, possibly in the Civil War.

1885 (04 Jun) D. C. Harrison married Miss A. E. Harmon, Book 2, page 447, Tarrant Co. marriage records.

1890 Census lost.

1895 According to CATTLE INDUSTRY OF TEXAS, 1895, DeWitt Clinton Harrison and Nancy R. Cannon had 8 children, 5 of whom were still living in 1895.

1900 Census of Pct 2/Voting Pct 6, Arlington, Tarrant Co., Texas, SD 262, ED 110 (June 20), sheet 17, lines 24-27, 305/313:

1902 (06 Mar) DeWitt Clinton Harrison died in Arlington.

The obituary for D. C. Harrison on Thursday, 20 Mar 1902, in the ARLINGTON JOURNAL called him "Uncle Clint" and said he died of pneumonia. Surviving him were his second wife and three children.

The Harrison Cemetery, where Nancy is buried, is described in a typed manuscript by David Dunnett, Member of Tarrant County Historical Commission, 1012 University Drive, Ft. Worth, TX 76107 (ca. 1974). The DAR also recorded this cemetery 24 Oct 1956. Cecilie Gaziano of Minneapolis and Jean Jones of Longview, TX, went to the cemetery in July 1992 and were unable to find Nancy's gravestone, of which a picture does exist. The cemetery appeared to have been vandalized further since 1974, and developers may have encroached on its land. Manuscripts about the Harrison cemetery are available from the Tarrant County Junior College northeast campus library, 828 Harwood Road, Arlington, and the Grapevine Public Library, 1201 Main Street, Grapevine, TX.

Nancy's dates of birth, marriage, and death obtained from her tombstone. The tombstone states the marriage was in 1854; however, a letter from Nancy Timmons Samuels, Reseach Chairman of the Fort Worth Genealogical Society, dated 8 Feb 1992 gave a date of 1853.

Her nickname was Nannie, according to Samuel E. Asbury, "Jonas Harrison, Legendary and Historical," THE SOUTHWESTERN HISTORICAL QUARTERLY, Vol. XLV, No. 3 (January, 1942), pp. 231-243.

CHILD 8 - Elizabeth Ann "Lizzie" Cannon

Date of birth from the 1900 census; also, Glendyne Wergland, G.Wergland@att.net, provided Elizabeth's date of birth from the family Bible of her great-uncle, Claude Goin, as 2 June 1836, in Mississippi -- in an email to Jean Jones, auntjean@promail.com, on 4 Mar 2008.

Full name and full names of her children were given at: <http://genforum.genealogy.com/goin>, message 45, by Jim Young, jimyoung10@sbcglobal.net and myoung@icok.net, on 2 Apr 1999. Also see his message #97. Jim Young stated that his grandmother, Anna Belle Goin Young, "always claimed she was 'Black Dutch,' explaining the reason for her dark skin. Most likely, William Thomas Goin was of Melungon descent." People in his Goin family described him as having straight black hair, high cheek bones and dark olive skin.

In 1850 Federal Census of Cass Co., Texas, Precinct 2, 9 Oct 1850, p. 742, household 21, Carter & Sarah Cannon: Elizabeth, age 13.

Probably in Tarrant County, Texas, in 1860; the 1860 Federal Census for Tarrant County does not survive.
