Notes

HUSBAND - Cyrus Josiah Marchbanks

Josiah's tombstone with dates of birth and death still stands in Tennessee in the part of Overton County that became Putnam County, and it has been photographed.

Information copied by Mrs. A. L. Feltonberger, Sept. 1968, entitled " MARCHBANKS, CANNON, FOWLER, FELTZ, SULLIVAN, STRATNER, HALL, HODGE FAMILIES," from record in possession of Mrs. J. Scott Rutherford (Katie Fay Marchbanks), 203 Cedar Street, Waxahachie, Texas 75165. It was dictated to Mr. Harold D. Marchbanks by his grandfather Josiah Marchbanks and recorded by Mr. B. F. Marchbanks after 1920 and dedicated to his parents, Thomas Calvin and Josephene Pauline (Sullivan) Marchbanks. The name was spelled Binum. After Josiah's first wife died, he gave his two little daughters to his mother to rear in Pendleton District, South Carolina, according to Marchbanks family papers. He married Margret Cannon and went to Overton County, Tennessee. He was believed to have been living there when his wife died. The censuses for Josiah Marchbanks and Margret Cannon do not show the daughters in his household; however, it is possible that at least one lived in Overton Co., TN, near a William Marchbanks household -- in a household headed by Alfred C. Robinson. Since the daughter named Elizabeth married Cumberland Robinson, this may be the right husband. The other daughter supposedly married a Morgan.

HUSBAND - Cyrus Josiah Marchbanks (Continued)

Also: "BOLING FELTZ MARCHBANKS HISTORY," Address on p. 1: Mrs. J. L. Thomas, 1520 Shasta Way, Placentia, CA 92670. "These records copied from the compiled records of Boling Feltz Marchbanks records (pg. 1 to 5 of original handwritten cc) - who lived at time of death in Waxachachie, Texas. He was a son of Thos. Calvin Marchbanks, who was son of Josiah Marchbanks, who was son of William Marchbanks, who was son of George Marchbanks, who came to America with his two sons, George, Jr., and William from Scotland - about 1716 - as best know at this time of writing. April - 1939.

On page 2 of the typescript is the statement: "At the writing of this is copy all of the children of Grandfather Josiah Marchbanks are dead except Uncle George and Uncle Bailey - Aug. 24, 1892 copied by BFM" {Boling Feltz Marchbanks}. On pp. 1-2 of these notes: "Josiah [Marchbanks] married second time to Margaret Cannon, daughter of Russel Cannon who was a son of Simon Cannon from England. Margaret Cannon's mother was a Campbell..

WIFE - Margret Saphronia Cannon

Date of death from Lo Moss Moore.

Date of marriage from census data, also from letter by descendant (copy in file).

Date of birth from 1860 and 1970 Johnson Co., TX, censuses.

July 6, 1980, letter from Marchbanks descendant, Sarah P. Brady (Mrs. St. Clair L.), states that Margret was her name, not Margaret. (At that time Mrs. Brady lived in Tucumcari, NM). It is not clear to whom Mrs. Brady was writing; it was a Mrs. Brinkley. She is now deceased. Mrs. Brady stated that "The family was ready to move to Ellis Co., Texas, where their oldest son was living, when Josiah died, February, 1850. Margret and her children and grandchildren went on to Texas wher she died at the home of her son Jasper in 1874. She must have been buried at the old Lees Academy Cemetery in Johnson Co., Tx., but I have never been able to locate her grave. As has happened so often the stone must have fallen and crumbled. There are no church records giving the date of her death." Mrs. Brady descended from Sarah Jane Fowler, daughter of Thomas Fowler and Ellenor Marchbanks.

1850 census: Margret not located.

1860 Census of Johnson Co., Texas, Buchanan P.O., p. 484, household 645, family 658:
