HUSBAND - Richard Cannon

Y-DNA Analysis shows that descendants of Russell E. Cannon, son of Richard Cannon, match closely with a descendant of Simcock Cannon, increasing confidence that Richard was a son of Simcock or other close relative.

Notes

His widow, Elizabeth appears to be the Elizabeth Cannon in the 1840 census of District 936, Cass Co., Georgia, on p. 101A. Joseph Murdoch (& Celia Ann Cannon) are on the same page.

Elizabeth was in the 1850 census of Division 12, Gordon Co., Georgia, p. 103B, 575/598, household of Malinda Cannon & James Adams: Elizabeth Canon 80 F S.C. [born about 1770]

Richard's birthdate determined from the above censuses as about 1755/1760. He was likely born after 1753 because he was not named as a grandchild in Jane Rudd's parents estate papers. Jane Rudd's mother's will names only Russell as her grandchild, which indicates that Russell was the oldest of Jane Rudd's children.

Question: Is Elizabeth Cole the only wife of Richard Cannon?

According to Lucy Grisham, genforum.genealogy.com/cannon/messages/4434.html, on 17 Jan 2008; accessed same date, the will of John Cole signed 8 Apr 1799, proved 2 Sep 1799, Union Co., South Carolina, Will Book A, p. 94, names his daughter Elizabeth Cole as the wife of Richard Cannon/Kennon. Also see her message 12134 on genforum.com/cannon on 1 Sep 2003. Her email address on 17 Jan 2008 it was lgrisham@ont.com. Her ancestor is Richard Cole, who married Lydia Hansford Hill, and who was the eldest son.

A deed of Richard Cole's (brother to Richard Cannon's wife) mentions Richard Cannon, which shows the tie between them.

26 Feb 1807 Union Co., SC. Deed Book I, p. 182. Richard Cole of Union District for $300 to James Foster of same, part of tract obtained by Turner Kendrick in 1785 according to a plat and patent, 100 acres, likewise part of tract laid out for Richard Cannon in 1796 112 acres, in a deed as the said Richard Cole bought of Elizabeth Turner, in all 135 acres, adj. The following deed helps to establish that Elizabeth Cannon was the Elizabeth who married Richard Cannon and lived in Habersham Co., GA, after leaving SC:

18 Jun 1832 Union Co., SC: Deed Book V, pp. 439-440. Elisabeth Cole now Elisabeth Cannon of Habersham County, Georgia, for $20 to John Bailey of Franklin County, Georgia, all my part which is one seventh part in a tract of land which was willed to me by my father John Cole of Union District, with the rest of my brothers and sisters after the death of our mother which are the names as follows Richard Cole, John Cole, Nancy Cole now Nancy Bailey, Rody Cole now Rody Yearby, Lucy Cole now Lucy Bailey, Mary Cole now Mary Kindrick and now myself, Elizabeth Cole now Elisabeth Cannon, tract of 475 acres in possession of William Cole adj. J. J. Foster, Robert Foster, Geo Garner & others. Elizabeth Cannon (X) (LS), Wit: Hiram Potts (X), James Bryan J. P. Andrew M. Norris, clerk of the court of Habersham County, Georgia, certifies that James Bryan was a justice of the peace. John Starritt, one of the justices of the inferior court certified that Andrew M. Norris was clerk, 23 Oct 1832. Recorded 3 Nov 1832.

CHILD 1 - John Cannon

Born about 1784 in South Carolina, probably Greenville District. He appears to have been the son of Richard Cannon of Greenville, who had a male of this age in his household in 1800 and 1810. A male of this age was in the household of Richard's brother, Russell Cannon, in the 1800 Greenville District, SC, census, but not in Russell's household in other years. John Cannon was not named as a son in estate documents of Russell Cannon.

1790 Census of Union Co., Ninety-Six District, SC: Rchd CANNON 1 male 1775-1790.

1800 Census of Greenville District, SC: Richard CANNON, p. 250/275; 1 male 1784-1790.

1810 Census of Pendleton District, SC, p. 209/146a: 1 male 1784-1794.

31 Jul 1804 Greenville Co. Deed Book G, pp. 441-442. William Cannon of Greenville Co., SC, bought land on the south side of Gap Creek of the middle fork of the Saluda River, 100 acres, for $200, from Jonathan Potts. Witnesses: Thos. Cantrell, Nimrod Cantrell. Proved by oath of Thomas Cantrell 03 Aug 1806. This shows an association between Thomas Cantrell, the father of Jemima Cantrell, whom John Cannon later married, and William Cannon. William Cannon, Richard Cannon, and Russell Cannon lived near each other and were associated in other documents. It is believed that these three men were brothers. Russell's proved father was Simcock Cannon, who lived in this area, also, as well as other parts of SC, GA, and VA -- from which he came.

1814 01 Dec. John Cannon volunteered for service in the War of 1812, at Pendleton District Court House, SC, serving under Capt. William Cannon in the S.C. Militia, Col. Nash; and was discharged 28 July 1814, according to his service record. Capt. William Cannon apparently was from another district and not a relative.

CANNON, JOHN - War of 1812 pension application S.O. #22487, S.C. #158087. B.L.W. #32830-160-55. Service in Captain William Cannon's Company of South Carolina Militia from 20 Jan 1814 to 28 Jul 1814. He was mustered into service in Pendleton Court House, SC and discharged at Powelton, Hancock Co., GA. He served in the Creek Indian War, Battle of Horseshoe Bend and the Battle of New Orleans. Resided 1851 and 1855 in Tarrant Co., Texas, and in 1871 in Washington Co., AR.

1818 24 March. Pendleton District, SC. He may have been the John Cannon who signed the following document as

Witnesses making a personal appearance: William Donaldson and Wesley Sherrod, both residents of Washington Co., AR. [Note: These were sons-in-law.]
1879 This is the year that John Cannon died, according to the letter to the Veterans Administration in Washington, D. C., which is in the pension file, from descendant, S. H. Sherman, Superintendent of Schools, Jesup, Georgia, dated March 12, 1934. THIS DATE APPEARS TO BE WRONG because John Cannon was in the 1880 census, apparently with a new wife, the mother of John F. Davis (who married his daughter, Mary Jane).

		Ancestor of Belva Harris Cauthen, Canton, MS; belvacauthen@yahoo.com.
		According to Mrs. Cauthen, in 1872 Jane (CANNON) HARRIS obtained a War of 1812 Widow's Pension because of her husband's service. She was aged 84 then.
		She did not have a record of their marriage, so she obtained affidavits from Nancy PRICE, age 84, and John C. PRICE, age 73, who lived in Haralson Co., GA, in 1872. Nancy Price attested that she had attended the actual ceremony about 1807, and John C. Price said he had lived in the same [Pendleton District, SC] neighborhood and knew they were married.
		Mrs. Cauthen's research leads her to believe that Jane Cannon Harris was a daughter of Richard Cannon, who died in Habersham, GA.

Mrs. Jane Harris

One Hundred and One Years Old.

Mrs. Jane Harris, (the widow of Charles Harris) formerly of this county, now of Haralson county, residing with her son-in-law, Mr. S. Gann, Sr., is one hundred and one years old [b c1783]. She is the mother, grand mother, great-grand-mother and great-great grandmother of near four hundred descendents. She never had but one husband. He was a soldier in the war of 1812, in consequence of which she now obtains a pension of $96.00 per annum from the national government. She has been a consistent member of the Primitive Baptist church for eighty years, and says if it was possible for her to live she will be a member eighty years more. She tells some very interesting and laughable stories about her visits among her friendly Indian neighbors, while they were in this country [sic – county is probably meant here], one of which is that they would all seat themselves around a pot of soup and a large wooden spoon was passed around, each in turn taking and drinking a spoonful of soup from the pot. Occasionally Skee-nah (the dog) would intrude and receive a stroke on the head with a spoon. The dexterous use of the spoon caused the soup to decrease in quantity very fast, until all appetites were completely satisfied, at which time Shee-nah [Skee-hah?] was permitted to come forward and satisfy his taste according to the demands of his stomach. Her (Mrs. Harris) acquaintance among the continental soldiers who had served in the Revolutionary war, was considerable; but they are all gone now, no one left to tell the hardships endured in those days which tested the hearts of patriots, whigs, traitors or tories. She was born in Pendleton District, S.C., from which place her husband went to the war of 1812.

Our townsman, Mr. F. M. Gann, is her grand son. He has been a resident of this county for forty years. G.

Information from Lo Moss Moore in Hurst, Texas, now deceased. She obtained it from Arthur Cannon in Florida, now deceased also. I have extensive correspondence with them in my files -- Cecilie Gaziano, 4511 Fremont Ave. S., Minneapolis, Minnesota 55419.

Also information from David C. Ballard, who is not a Cannon descendant, but who managed affairs for his elderly relative, Cleo Cannon Hughes, who was a granddaughter of John Milton Cannon. Cleo was 100 years old in January 1992.

Mary Turney (marymt@gower.net) also researches this line.

Also see the webpage of Darrell Clakley, Clakley@aol.com, at WorldConnect on www.rootsweb.com, last updated 1 Jan 2003; accessed 2 Jan 2008.

Because Russell E. Cannon's household with a wife born about 1794/1804 and a male born 1810/1820 appeared in the 1820 census (and could not have been Russell Cannon who married Jane Campbell, a much older man), Russell E. married before 1820, perhaps about 1818 if the child was a son. It is unclear whether or not Russell had 1, 2, or 3 wives.

For Russell E. Cannon's marriage data I am using undocumented information from Ashley Cagle, on www.familysearch.com <<http://www.familysearch.com>>, posted two wives for Russell E. Cannon:

"I have a family transcription that mentions a Rachael Kinnon or Cannon as being the first wife of Isaac Newton Tate who is the brother of Abraham Tate who married Eleanor Cannon. The original document was written by Mattie Harrison who was the grand-daughter of Evan D Tate, son of Isaac and Rachael. I am not sure when she originally wrote the history but my mother copied the document in the 50's pretty much as written and I typed it as written as my mother had copied as written. When my mother copied it, my aunt Matt was still alive so I think if any alternations were made they were made with Mattie's verification. I have found errors but not many, some seem valid but just unproven. One of those is Rachael. Until I started asking about the Tates in the 90's, no one knew of her. By the time I stopped researching, only Marilyn Houser accepted it and now it seems to be documented everywhere of her existence but I have yet to find any documentation.

"Anyway, I posted on findagrave to Epictetus (John) and he referred me to you as the Cannon expert. I found his bio on William Powell and found many intersections with an Evin Pierson, Cannons, and Tate. I searched and found you had a Simcock Kinnon/Cannon and I thought Kinnon and Cannon could be crossovers at that time. I was also thinking that Rachael and Eleanor may be sisters/first cousins but I don't find any unnamed female Cannons that would fit in Eleanors family. Just curious with both you search of Cannons and Kinnons, if you found any Rachael's born in the early 1810's, death around 1843, Georgia."_Thanks,
Walter Harrison

He attached to the email "Mattie_doc.rtf. It included this paragraph "Issac son of John Tate married Rachel Kinnon in Ga. Eight children, 6 boys, 2 girls. Nine children - by marriage 1844 to Cynthia Hendrix after Rachel died. Some of Isaac Tates childrens names: Marion Lafayette, Joe, Martha, (Feaby Ann, Eliz.) John, Evan Draton, Dave, Issac Newton Jr, Louise, Wilkins, Abe, Julia. (17 children in all)."

Some information from Magness/Radna Family Tree at www.ancestry.com, public family trees. This family tree contains numerous errors for the ancestry of Bird Cannon posted at www.ancestry.com, so the dates for the children of Lucinda (Morgan) Cannon and Bird Cannon may or may not be credible.

* It is unlikely that her father was born in South Carolina, as his father, Simcock Cannon, was in Virginia until at least April 1765.    He was in Mecklenburg Co., NC, by 24 Oct 1768 and Tryon Co., NC, by Apr 1769.    These areas are in present-day South Carolina.    It appears that Richard Cannon was born about 1755/1760, according to the censuses for him.
