HUSBAND - Russell Cannon

Will of John Rudd II 05 Jan 1753/54 mentions his grandson Ruscill Kennon, son of his daughter Jane; son-in-law Simcock Kennon, one of the executors. Thus, Russel Cannon/Kennon was born about or slightly before this time.

Birth date also determined from South Carolina land record for father, Simcock Cannon. A head of household, after 4 Nov 1755, could obtain 100 acres of land and others in their household, regardless of age or race, could obtain 50 acres of land each. "As of 1763, no person was allowed land for any children of the age of eighteen years or older. A person eighteen years or older was supposed to obtain land in his or her own name (which would have been 100 acres for a single person). Therefore, it would appear that Simcock Cannon had himself, a wife, and nine other persons in his family. If Russell Cannon (presumably his son) were as old as eighteen, he would have had his own grant. Therefore, we may assume that he was not born until c1754." [From letter to Cecilie Gaziano from researcher Brent H. Holcomb on 16 Dec 1791.]

Marriage date 1781 from Compendium of American Genealogy, Frederick Adams Virkus, ed.; Baltimore: Genealogical Publishing Co., 1968 (orig. pub. 1937). This source is known to contain many errors. If 1779 is take as birth date for son William, they were likely married about 1777/1778. They could have married in Tennessee, as Simcock Cannon, Russell's father, was in Washington Co., TN, in 1783. Russell may have been with him. Otherwise, Russell was found in Pendleton District, SC, roughly about this time.

Will given in A Collection of Upper South Carolina Genealogical and Family Records, Vol. I; James E. Wooley, ed.; published by Southern Historical Press, c/o The Rev. S. Emmett Lucas, Jr., P.O. Box 738, Easley, SC 29640, 1979.

Estate documents allow an estimate of date of death between 10 Jul 1824 and 01 Oct 1824.

Juanita Askew of Trafford, AL, a descendant of Russell, also gives citation for will: Anderson Co., SC, Vol. I, p. 283, Section A, 1800-1834. Will made 10 Jul 1824, probated 6 Sep 1824. Grave not yet found.

Will of Hannah Rudd dated 02 Oct 1771 mentions her grandson Russell Kennon, no other grandchildren. Russel would have been 16-18 years old then.

Juanita's notes point out: Russell's land was in Pickens Co., SC, on Rice's Creek, adjoining John Arial, James Mansel 201 acres, 300 acres/Wolf Creek (both sides), joining William Gilstrap, Mary Haynes, Reese Bowen, G. W. Davenport. [NOTE: Russel's son, Elijah, married Dorcas Bowen]

Russell's father, Simcock Cannon, accepted an appointment as constable in Prince Edward Co., VA, in the 1750s. Perhaps Russell was born there. Simcock could have been in Henrico Co. or Chesterfield Co., VA, before then, as his father-in-law lived in Henrico Co., and a John Simcock, perhaps his grandfather, lived in Chesterfield Co., next door (Richmond area).

04 Sep 1786 Russel Cannon received a land grant in Greenville Co., SC.

01 Jan 1787 Russel Cannon received 95 acres in 96 District on branches of middle fork of the Saluda River. Plat certified 16 Mar 1786.

20 Apr 1790 Russel Cannon of Greenville Co. sold land granted in 1786.

21/22 Sep 1787 Simcock Cannon of 96 District, SC, leased 105 acres to Russel Cannon of same district, middle fork of Saluda River.

WIFE - Jane (sometimes Jean) Campbell

Some records give her name as Jean (e.g., Russel's will); others give it as Jane.

A Compendium of American Genealogy says that Russell Cannon, of Distr. 96, S.C., married a Miss Campbell in 1781. This source is known to contain many errors, however.

1830 Pickens Co., SC, census, p. 317: Jane Cannon

1840 Pickens Co., SC, census, p. 370: Jane Cannon

The 1850 SC census, Pickens Co., p. 497, showed Jane Cannon living with her daughter, Harriet, and daughter's husband, Abraham Duke, household 669/family 669, and gave her age as 90. Date of birth inferred from this. Place of birth was given as South Carolina, although this may not be correct.

According to the 1880 Census of Pickens CH Twp., Pickens Co., SC, for Harriet Duke, her daughter, both of Harriet's parents were born in Virginia. [Note from C.G.: I am inclined to think that Virginia may be correct.]

According to the 1880 census of Grayson Co., Texas, for daughter Martha Brown, both of Martha's parents were born in South Carolina.

Materials from Lo Moss Moore and Juanita Askew say that Jane Campbell had a sister, Peggy, who married Harold Clark. [Juanita adds that Simcock Cannon witnessed a deed for Henry Clark involving 180 acres on Broad River in Union Co., SC (no date given).] These Clarks may or may not be related. Accuracy and source of information not known which gives this Campbell-Clark relationship.

Era Morgan Davis transcribed the tombstones in the Tabor church cemetery and gave Jane Cannon's date of death as 18 March 1854, at age 98, stated in a letter to Cecilie Gaziano, no date but c.1993. Note from Cecilie Gaziano: I am not sure of the source of date of death as 8 March 1855.

CHILD 1 - William Cannon

Date of birth from cemetery record, Kemper Co., MS, 1779. Another source says 1781, see below: [This source contains many inaccuracies.] A date of 1780 or earlier fits the censuses for William Cannon.

The Compendium of American Genealogy, Vol. VII, (Baltimore, MD: Genealogical Publishing Co., 1937, 1968), edited by Frederick Adams Virkus, p. 707: "Col. William Cannon (1781-1843), in Battle of New Orleans, War 1812, Pickens Dist., S.C., to Kemper Co., Miss.; m. 1801, Cecelia Barton (1786-1840); Benj. [son], Am. Rev.; m. Dorcas Anderson; Thos. [grandson]; John [great-grandson]. [Genealogical info. on descendants follows.]

Shows father as Russell, grandfather as Simeon Cannon, from Eng. to S.C. [sic]. Apparently, the Compendium is the source, erroneously, for the information that Simcock Cannon was also called Simeon. No evidence exists for "Simeon" as his name, however.

Two additional sons were Elisah Barton Cannon, born 22 Sep 1838 and John Oliver Cannon born 24 Aug 1840, died 6 Sep 1847 in Marengo Co., AL, according to Patrick Walton, patw@glccomputers.com, at Rootsweb's WorldConnect Projct, last updated 28 Apr 2007; accessed 20 May 2007. These are very likely to be sons of another family, however, as neither one is shown in the 1840 census for William's family.

CHILD 2 - Rhoda Cannon

An unknown female born about 1790 or earlier was in the 1790 Greenville District, SC, census for Russell Cannon. An unknown female born about 1784/1790 was in the 1800 Greenville District census for Russell Cannon and born 1784/1794 was present in the 1810 Pendleton District censuses for Russell Cannon. She was not present in the 1820 census for Russell in Pendleton District. It is assumed that this unknown female is daughter, Rhoda, about whom almost nothing is known. Her date of birth cannot be narrowed down to anything beyond 1780/1784.

Note: Carter Cannon, her brother, born about 1794, had 3 daughters who named daughters Rhoda. These were Martha, Nancy, and Elizabeth.

Although several early accounts and letters, which are credible, say she married a Davis, no first name is known for him.

CHILD 3 - James Cannon

Information on James from descendants:

James Cannon's first land purchases after coming into Alabama:

2) Book 1, p. 147. Wallis Jones and wife Susannah to James Cannon 03 Feb 1823. Witnesses: Wm. Jones, Robert Moore.

Also see page 2 of SIMCOCK CANNON FAMILY, manuscript book by Dewel C. and Delores W. Lott, Route 3, Box 255, Hartselle, AL 35640, 1992, $23 postpaid. Dewel descends from James Cannon.

Some people give 16 May 1785 as James's birthdate, and others give 16 May 1788. Dewel Lott used 1785.

See, e.g., web page of Judy Dover, jgsdover@bellsouth.net, on WorldConnect at Rootsweb.com, last updated 25 Feb 2007; accessed 24 May 2007. She listed 1785.

Three of James's children were born in Tennessee, but the county is not known. It isn't clear where he was in the 1810 and 1820 censuses.

1810 James Cannon, Russell's son, may have been in Tennessee or Alabama; he was not in SC.

1820 James Cannon may have been in Tennessee or Alabama; not in SC.

CHILD 4 - Margret Saphronia Cannon
 Date of marriage from census data, also from letter by descendant (copy in file).

Date of birth from 1860 and 1870 Johnson Co., TX, censuses.

July 6, 1980, letter from Marchbanks descendant, Sarah P. Brady (Mrs. St. Clair L.), states that Margret was her name, not Margaret. (At that time Mrs. Brady lived in Tucumcari, NM). It is not clear to whom Mrs. Brady was writing; it was a Mrs. Brinkley. She is now deceased. Mrs. Brady stated that "The family was ready to move to Ellis Co., Texas, where their oldest son was living, when Josiah died, February, 1850. Margret and her children and grandchildren went on to Texas wher she died at the home of her son Jasper in 1874. She must have been buried at the old Lees Academy Cemetery in Johnson Co., Tx., but I have never been able to locate her grave. As has happened so often the stone must have fallen and crumbled. There are no church records giving the date of her death." Mrs. Brady descended from Sarah Jane Fowler, daughter of Thomas Fowler and Ellenor Marchbanks.

1850 census: Margret not located.

1860 Census of Johnson Co., Texas, Buchanan P.O., p. 484, household 645, family 658:

"MARCHBANKS, CANNON, FOWLER, FELTZ, SULLIVAN, STRATNER, HALL, HODGE FAMILIES," from originally handwritten notes in possession of Mrs. J. Scott Rutherford (nee Katie Fay Marchbanks), 203 Cedar Street, Waxahachie, Texas 75165. Copied by Mrs. A. L. Feltenberger, Sept. 1968. The record was dictated to Mr. Harold D. Marchbanks by his grandfather Josiah Marchbanks and this recorded by Mr. B. F. Marchbanks after 1920 and dedicated to his parents, Thomas Calvin and Josephene Pauline (Sullivan) Marchbanks. The account details some Marchbanks history. On typed page 210, it states: "Josiah and Margret Marchbanks were of 'Primitive Baptist Faith'; Josiah was preparing to move to Texas from Tenn. in 1850 and just before he was to leave Overton Co., he died but his wife came on to Texas with her sons, Wm., James C., Jonathan, Geo. F., Ranson, Alexander, Jasper and Josiah Bailey, also her daughter Ellenor, known as Aunt Nellie, Fowler (a widow, her husband...having died...also Ellenor's two daughters, Margret Ann Fowler, born May 22, 1836, and Sarah Jane Fowler, b. Nov. 27, 1840."

CHILD 5 - [Male A] Cannon
 There is a male who cannot be accounted for, so far, born between 1784-1790 in the 1800 census for Russell Cannon. He was not in the 1790 census for Russell Cannon, nor was he in the 1810 census for Russell Cannon.

The "Harold Clark" who married Margret "Peggy" Campbell, Jane Campbell's sister, has been erroneously confused with a fictitious son, Harold, who married a Peggy Campbell, in materials by Mrs. Lovell K. Lovett, now deceased. She gave Vol. XXI Ellis Co., Texas Gen. Records, 1680-1968 for Harold's name. These Ellis Co. records are nothing more than undocumented, typescript family group sheets. Mrs. Lovett was the source of a great deal of erroneous information about the Russell Cannon/Jane Campbell family, some of which she simply made up to fit her preconceived notions that her ancestor, JUDA or JUDAH (unknown) was the JUDITH Cannon who was the daughter of Russell and Jane Cannon, and who also married a Kendrick. Mrs. Lovett's Juda married Abel Kendrick; she confused the two women who married Kendricks. Her Juda was only 8 years younger than Russell Cannon, so Mrs. Lovett gave Russell a much earlier birthdate and "married" him to an earlier, undocumented and possibly fictitious, wife, Hulda Hoad/Hood. A different family, that of Russell E. Cannon, son of the Richard Cannon who may have been Simcock's son, is the one with a link to a Cherokee or part Cherokee woman named Hulda Hoad/Hood.

CHILD 6 - Martha Cannon

Nicknamed "Patsy," and this name appears on her tombstone instead of Martha, according to Lo Moss Moore, who supplied the date of death.

Martha married after 1824 because her father's estate documents S.C. 59, Vol. 1, p. 45, Estate of Russell Cannon Pack 99 (Equity), Clerk of Court's Office, Pickens, S.C., state that the heirs of Russell Cannon include: "Martha Cannon who afterwards married William Brown."

She was widowed by 1852, when she came with Elijah Cannon to Grayson County, Texas. according to "Ancestors and Descendants: Grayson Co., TX," compiled and edited by Grayson Co. Genealogical Society (date of publication missing from my photocopies). See section on Elijah Cannon, her brother. She came with him; he was widowed also.

Date of birth deduced from census data and also the information below.

From typewritten "History of the [Elijah] Cannon Family and the Cannon Community" by Catherine Cannon with Others., 1973. Obtained from an Elijah Cannon descendant by Cecilie Gaziano. Martha "Patsy" Cannon Brown had no children but helped to rear her brother Elijah's children. It states that "she died at the age of 92, March 6, 1885, and was buried in the Cannon cemetery. Held in such high esteem by her 'children,' they did not follow the practice customary on the frontier of burying the dead in plain, roughly hewn coffins. Hers was beautifully constructed, lined with the best material available. Though usually an Irish custom, a 'wake' was held for her by these descendants of English heritage." (p. 9) This source also gave her birthdate as 1793 and stated that she was three years older than Elijah. (p. 9 and p. 33)

In 1885 she died at the age of 92 (birth about 1793).

CHILD 7 - Carter Cannon

Sometimes a middle initial of "C." is given for him, but there are no records found so far to back this up.

Date of birth from 1850 Cass Co., TX, census.

Date of death from Ft. Worth Standard, TX, published on 3 Jun 1875.

Date of marriage deduced from known children's dates of birth (from census).

The 1830 Lawrence Co., TN, census, shows two females born between 1820-1825 (aged 5-10) living in the Carter Cannon household. They may or may not be daughters, as another couple was living with them. The man was aged 40-50 (born between 1780-1790), older than Carter Cannon. The Yalobusha County History by the Heritage Committee of the Yalobusha Historical Society, MS, 1982, under entry for Dr. Felix Grundy (p. number not shown on photocopy), states: "In 1833 a crippled man named Carter Cannon lived at the Perry place south O'tucelofa now by Dr. Lewis Carter Cannon sold his occupant to A.W.P. Humphreys also lived on this place in 1835, then Cannon in 1836, the year of the Pontotac land sales. [This passage transcribed exactly as written; the writing is not clear.]

CHILD 8 - Elijah Cannon

Ancestors and Descendants: Grayson County, Texas; compiled and edited by Grayson County Genealogical Society (date of pub. missing from my photocopy). Has entries on Elijah and his descendants.

U.S. Census:

1830 Pickens Co., SC, p. 317A,B: Elijah Cannon.

1840 Pickens Co., SC, p. 389: Elijah Cannon.

1850 Pickens Co., SC, p. 503: Elijah Cannon.

1860 Sherman P.O., Grayson Co., TX; p. 161B: Eliga [sic] Cannon.

1870 Precinct 4, Grayson Co., TX, p. 158: Elijah Cannon.

Elijah's modern-day tombstone says: "Elijah Cannon, Sept. 7, 1796 - Oct. 21, 1887, Moved from Pickens Co. S.C. to Grayson Co. Tex. A.D. 1852.

"The Cannons 'With Their Deep Roots and Tangled Branches,'" 1977, by Edward P. Cannon of Poplar Bluff, MO (now deceased), p. 29, gives some information on Elijah's descendants, some of which is inaccurate.

CHILD 9 - Harriet Cannon

1810 Pendleton District, SC, p.145A, Russel Cannon, Harriet is shown in the 1794-1800 age bracket.

1840 Pickens District, SC, p. 380, Abraham Duke, Harriet is shown as being born 1800-1810.

1850 Pickens Co., SC, census showed her as age 47, so birth date would be 1803. However, the 1810 census for Russell Cannon would show a daughter under 10 if that were correct. None shown. The 1810, 1820 SC Pickens Co. censuses indicate two daughters born between 1794 and 1800. Harriet may be one of these. Lo Moss Moore and Dewel Lott both use a birth date of c. 1799 for her.

Abt 1820 Lawrence Co., TN. Son, Russell Carroll Cannon, was born. There are two other males born between 1820 and 1825 in the 1830 Federal Census of Lawrence Co., TN, in the household of Judith Kendrick. These are assumed to be sons of John Kendrick and Judith Cannon, also, but their names are not known.

1820 Lawrence Co., TN. Federal Census for Mr. Obediah Kendrick, 1 male and 1 female 45 years old or older (born 1775 or earlier). Slaves: m: 3 < 14; 1 26-45; f: 1 < 14; 1 26-45. Mr. John Kendrick, presumed son, was next door.[1] 1 m 26-44, 2 m 10-15, 2 m under 10; 1 f 26-44, 2 f 16-25, 3 f under 10; 1 f slave 14-25.

Abt 1820 Lawrence Co., TN. John Kendrick died.

02 Oct 1820 Lawrence Co., TN. Monday. Ordered that John Silers, John Ray and Joshua Ashmore be appointed commissioners to take off one years provisions for the suport of Judiah Kendrick, wife of John Kendrick, dec'd[2] and that they make a report to next court.

Ordered by the court that Judah Kendrick and William Henderson be appointed administratix and administrator of the estate of John Kendrick, dec'd and they gave Alexander Miller and William Welch Jr.[3] securities who were bound in the sum of $1,000 and that letters od administration issue.[4]

Jan Ct 1821 Lawrence Co., TN. Monday. The commissioners who were appointed at the last term of this court for the purpose of setting apart certain property of John Kendrick, dec'd for the support of the widdow and according to an act of assembly made then part in words and figures following to wit, State of Tennessee, Lawrence County agreement to an order of court appointing John Ray, John Sellers, Joshua Ashmore to make an allowance to Judy Kendrick wife of John Kendrick, dec'd for her maintenance for one year have allowed the said Judy Kendrick $140, viz, 1 steer at $10, 2 cows and calves at $19, and 9 barrels of corn at $1 per bbl., amounting in the whole to something 38, the balance of $102 is the amount that we the said John Ray, John Sellers and Joshua Ashmore have made in allowance to the said Judith Kendrick. Given under our hands this 10th day of Nov. 1820 which we received and ordered to be entered of record which report was assessed by the said John Ray, John Sellers and Joshua Ashmore.

Whereas it is represented to this court that an order which was made at the last court allowing the Administrator of John Kendrick, dec'd to sell said estate was not entered of record it is therefore ordered by the court that an order as aforesaid be entered now for then.

The Administrator of John Kendrick, dec'd. returned unto court a bill of sale of said estate which was received and ordered to be recorded accordingly.

06 Oct 1823 Lawrence Co., TN. Judith Kendrick, widow of John Kendrick, dec'd, appeared in court, as executrix of his estate. Abraham Miller was excused as security, and Thomas Welch, Henry Sharp and Henry Welch were appointed as securities in the room of Abraham Miller and William Welch (as per Dollar). Judith was named guardian of Russell Carroll Kendrick, minor child.

Apr Ct 1831 Lawrence Co., TN. Judith Kendrick was released from her obligation as guardian of Russell Carroll Kendrick (perhaps because he was of age). [Other than Russell Carroll Kendrick, the identities of the nine children[5] of John Kendrick who appear on the 1820 census, and the three on the 1830 census with Judith are not known. Unless many died young, the 11 Kendrick children of John Kendrick are unaccounted for.]

[5] The female born between 1800 and 1804 may be the second wife, Judith, and not a child.

CHILD 11 - Ransom Cannon

1810 PENDLETON DISTRICT, SC, p. 145A: Russel Cannon household, has a male born between 1800 and 1810, who is assumed to be Ransom.

1820 PENDLETON DISTRICT, SC, p. 180: Russel Cannon household, includes a male born between 1804 and 1810, who is likely to be Ransom.

In 1830 Ransom Cannon was not found in the census. He had died before 1 March 1830. Was Malinda in her father's household in this census.

Jeremiah Fields, Malinda's father, p. 319, has a female born between 1810 and 1815, who may be Malinda. By 1850, Malinda had married Joseph Donaldson and lived in Cherokee Co., GA, according to the census, p. 520A. She was aged 38, born about 1812. [I could not find them in the 1840 census.]

Vol. I, A Collection of Upper S.C. Genealogical and Family Records, James E. Wolley, ed.; Easley, S.C.: Southern Historical Press, 1979:

CANNON:

"Estate of Ransome CANNON, Box 2, #20. Probate Judge Office, Pickens Co., SC, Est. Admr., 1 Mar 1830 by Elijah, Malinda A. Cannon, Absalom Reece, Jeremiah Fields, who are found unto Jas. H. Dendy, Ord. in the sum of $3,000. 00. Expend; 7 March 1831. It is therefore ordered that Mary Smith, formerly widow Boyd, shall receive from the Admr. Elijah Cannon one third of $397.00 and that John H. Boyd a minor under 14 years be paid the rest. Moses Smith was guardian of said child. Malinda Ann Cannon was the widow. Jane Cannon was the mother of decd. and was paid $33. 00 on a proven account." From: 'Pendleton District, S.C. Deeds' 1790-1806, compiled by Betty Willie, Willow Bend Books, 65 East Main St., Westminster, MD 21157-5026; www.willowbendbooks.com.

See: 01 Mar 1830 estate settlement of Ransom Cannon. On 7 Aug 1835 it was ordered that $3.83 be paid to the widow, now Mrs. Smith and the balance to Moses Smith, guardian of John H. Boyd, a minor. Among buyers was a Robert Boyd. In SOME SOUTH CAROLINA RECORDS, Vol. 2, edited by the Rev. Silas E. Lucas Jr., Southern Historical Press, Easley, SC. [It is not clear if Malinda married Moses Smith or a different Smith. I think this refers to a different widow, whose name was Mary -- widow of a Mr. Boyd, and she married Moses Smith.]]

DONALDSON:

"Donaldson, Joseph. Pack 99. Clerk of Court Office. Pickens, S.C., State of Georgia, Cherokee County. "We Joseph Donaldson and Malinda A. Donaldson his wife, have made, constitute and appoint J. W. Harrison Esq. of Anderson Dist., S.C., our attorney in fact for us. CHILD 11 - Ransom Cannon (Continued)

There are two unidentified males in the household of Russell and Jane Cannon, using census data. One was born between 1784-1790, and the other between 1800 and 1810. I am guessing that the latter (younger) one is Ransom, because his widow (who married Joseph Donelson or Dolleson) was 38 in the 1850 Cherokee Co., GA, census -- born about 1812 -- and I am assuming that Ransom and his wife were somewhat close in age.
