 Free White Females - 45 and over: 1 1765/earlier This may be William Sr.'s widow, b. c.1759. Numbers of Slaves: 5
 His brother, Jonathan, was next door.

It appears that William Cannon, Jr., married a woman named Jeaney about 1811/1813, and they sold his father's land. (William Cannon, Jr., and Jeaney moved to White County, Tennessee, and little is known about them after that.)

14 Feb 1813 Greenville Co., SC. Deed Book I, page 210. William and Jeaney Cannon sold land in Greenville Co., SC, to Jesse Mayfield tract on south side of Gap Creek[17] of the middle fork of the Saluda River, 100 acres adjoining Jonathan Potts and Cannon, part of tract granted to Job Colcock surveyed for Ephraim Ellis. Witnesses: David McBrayer, Samuel McJunkin. This William may have been either the brother or the father of Jonathan Cannon. I suspect he was the brother, and the father had died or moved by this time, but it is a little difficult to be sure.

William Cannon was next door to Jonathan Potts in the 1800 and 1810 censuses.

[9] This William Cannon was too old to be Russell's son (who would have been aged 13-15 at this time). I think he was Russell's brother.

[10] This William Cannon would have been too old to be Russell's son (who would have been aged 14-16 at this time). Perhaps a brother.

[11] This William would have to have been born in 1778 if Russell's son. Date for son is supposed to be 1781. If 1781 is correct, this is not Russell's son. I believe this information is for Russell's brother.

[12] Mary Barns may or may not be related to John S. Barnes who married Martha Cannon, daughter of Carter Cannon, granddaughter of Russell Cannon, and great-granddaughter of Simcock Cannon.

WIFE - [Not known]

Name from 1813 land record of Greenville District, SC, in which William and Jeaney or Teaney Cannon sold land. See William Cannon's notes.

CHILD 1 - [Female] Cannon

Deduced from 1790 census for William KENNON of Greenville District, SC, who had 3 females in household who could be daughters. Two are not in the 1800 Greenville District census, so they either died or were married by then. They could have been other relatives or not related.

Could the Mary BARNs below be a daughter of William?

1799 - May 13, William KANNON of Greenville Co., SC, sold 100 acres (part of a tract run by Thomas BRUMMETT and by him conveyed to John CONENHOVEN and from him to John GLASS. Sold to Mary BARNs. Witnesses: David McBRAYER and Aaron SLATEN. Deed Book L, p. 79; proved 24 Jul 1813.

A daughter born in 1774/1784 resided in William's household in 1800 Greenville Co. census.

CHILD 2 - [Female] Cannon

Deduced from 1790 census for William KENNON of Greenville District, SC, who had 3 females in household who could be daughters.

CHILD 3 - [Female] Cannon

Deduced from 1790 census for William KENNON of Greenville District, SC, who had 3 females in household who could be daughters. William Cannon of Greenville District, 1800 census, had a female, assumed to be a daughter, born about 1774/1784.

1820 Jonathan Cannon not found in census. Might have been in McMinn Co., TN, for which the 1820 census does not survive. McMinn Co. was formed from Indian lands. According to research by Betty Shaw, Jonathan Cannon was on a jury in McMinn Co. in 1820; therefore, he was a property owner.

According to Betty Shaw, Jonathan had a brother William. She said that Jonathan sold a female slave with her son to his brother, William, and William, of White Co., TN, was summoned to Court in McMinn Co., TN, to pay Jonathan's debt to Benjamin Harris. Jonathan had sold the slave to his brother to keep Benjamin from taking the slaves in payment for his debt.

CHILD 5 - Jonathan Cannon

Date of death and name of first wife, Sallie Boyd, and her parents, Robert Boyd and Jane Love, are from Betty Shaw, Floridaibis@aol.com, given to Cecilie Gaziano, cgaziano@prodigy.net, in an email on 15 May 2008. According to Jonathan Cannon's son Emberry's application for Indian Land in Texas about 1890, this branch of the family had Chickasaw and Choctaw blood. Betty Shaw compiled a book on her Cannon-Cross Families, copyrighted 1999. Copy of Jonathan's son Emberry's application for land in the Chickasaw Nation gives names of Sallie and her parents; received from Batty K. Fritts in a fax on 25 Jul 2008.

According to Betty Shaw, Jonathan had a brother William. She said that Jonathan sold a female slave with her son to his brother, William, and William, of White Co., TN, was summoned to Court in McMinn Co., TN, to pay Jonathan's debt to Benjamin Harris. Jonathan had sold the slave to his brother to keep Benjamin from taking the slaves in payment for his debt.
