

John Cannon of Pendleton District, South Carolina

This man is unidentified. He may connect to the families of Russell Cannon, Richard Cannon, William Cannon, and Simcock Cannon.

1810 Census of Pendleton District, SC, p. 160A: Jo. Cannon

Free white males:		Free white females:		All other free persons except Indians not taxed		Slaves
0-10	10-16	16-26	26-45+	0-10	10-16	16-26	26-45+
1
1794-1800				1
				1765 or earlier
				Jo. (John?)

24 Mar 1818. Pendleton District, filed in Anderson Co., SC, Estate Papers, Lachago? No. 12, Bundle No. 13, Box 2678, microfilm c1406 in the South Carolina Department of Archives and History, Columbia, SC.

The first mention of any John Cannon in the areas of SC where our Cannons were, that I have been able to find is this case, which states that “they the deponents is [sic] well acquainted with John Tatum,” the brother of Martha Tatum (aged approximately 50) who sought guardianship over her affairs and estate because she had been a “lunatic” for at least 15 years. The case runs many pages and extends at least until 2 Oct 1829, after John Tatum had died. Signed by:

Russel Cannon {his mark}, Samuel McCollum, Joshua Barton, John Stanly, David McCollum, Benjamin Day, John Cannon, Elijah Cannon. Before Joseph Carleton, J.P.

A page that is near the one dated 2 Oct 1826 carries these names:

William Hirksey?, John Stanly, Nath'l Davis, Jesse Suggs, Isaiah Hirksy?, Russel Cannon {his mark}, Dan'l Murphree, William Stanton?, Jonathan R. Davis {his mark}, Hugh Daniel, James Benguion?, Edward Tatum {his mark}, Hugh Tatum, John H. Roes, Joseph Young, Charles Durham {his mark}, Brinkly Rains, Hendley (Hundley?) Evatt, David McCollum, Benjamin Day, Elisha Dean {his mark}, James Evatt, Solomon Hays, John Cannon, James Brice (Brill?), Joel Morton {his mark}, Elisha League.

On a different page are: John Brown, John Handly, James Farguson

Pendleton District was split into Anderson and Pickens Districts.

1830 Census of Anderson County, p. 120: John Cannon May or may not be same as above.

Males:	0-	5-	10-	15-	20-	30-	40-	50-	60-	70-	80-	90-	100+
	5	10	15	20	30	40	50	60	70	80	90	100
		1	1		1				1
	1820-	1815-	1800-						1760-
	1825	1820	1810						1770

Females:	0-	5-	10-	15-	20-	30-	40-	50-	60-	70-	80-	90-	100+
	5	10	15	20	30	40	50	60	70	80	90	100
					1				1
					1800-				1770-
					1810				1780

James L. Reid, reid@clemsun.edu, wrote in message 976 on genforum.genealogy.com/cannon that Ephraim Cannon lived in Pendleton District, dying intestate in 1841 in Anderson District. His father was John Cannon and his grandfather was Ephraim Cannon, who died in Newberry District in 1803. It is not clear if this John Cannon had lived in Pendleton District. Heirs were:

Mary Cannon, widow of the deceased

Lavinia Cannon, daughter

Elias Cannon of Georgia

Lucinda Elrod, widow of Yancy Elrod, in Georgia

The heirs of James Cannon, deceased, all infants residing in Georgia:

Mary Jane

James

Ephraim

Thomas

Lillie P.

Martha Scott, widow of Ebenezer Scott, in Alabama

Jesse Cannon in Mississippi

John Cannon of Anderson District