Name of first wife, Sallie Boyd, and her parents, Robert Boyd and Jane Love, are from Betty Shaw, Floridaibis@aol.com, given to Cecilie Gaziano, cgaziano@prodigy.net, in an email on 15 May 2008. According to Jonathan Cannon's son Emberry's application for Indian Land in Texas about 1890, this branch of the family had Chickasaw and Choctaw blood.

According to Betty Shaw, Jonathan had a brother William. She said that Jonathan sold a female slave with her son to his brother, William, and William, of White Co., TN, was summoned to Court in McMinn Co., TN, to pay Jonathan's debt to Benjamin Harris. Jonathan had sold the slave to his brother to keep Benjamin from taking the slaves in payment for his debt.

Name: Emberry Cannon; Tribe: Chickasaw Case Number: 23

Chickasaw Nation

Indian Territory

Perkins County

On this the 7 day of August 1889 personally appeared before me Emberry Cannon who being by me sworn an oath says

That he was borned [sic] in the state of Miss. and moved to Texas in the year 1849 and is now a Resident of Terrell, Texas

That he is near 68 years of age¹

That he is a son of Johnathan [sic] and Sallie Cannon (now deceased) that his mother's maiden name was Boyd – that she was the daughter of Robert and Jane Boyd

That he remembers his Grand Mother Boyd distinctly – she was and claimed to be a quarter blood Chickasaw Indian – she was dark and showed plainly the Indian blood. Her mother was a Love I think Jane Love.

My mother and Grand Mother have often told me that my Great-Grand Mother was nearly a full blood Chickasaw Indian.

My mother and Grand mother has repeatedly told me that my Grand Father Robert Boyd was of Choctaw descent.

My children by my first wife and especially Mrs. Julia Fleming (a daughter of mine by my first wife) and who has been a resident of the Chickasaw nation for 17 years has repeatedly urged me to establish my right of citizenship in the Chickasaw Nation

I have told her since she was a child that she was a descendant of the Chickasaw Indians from my mother

It has been my impression all the time it was a disgrace to claim Indian descent is one reason I have not applied before this time when a boy in Miss. the boys of my age would tease and tantalize me on account of my Indian blood.
