

Rhoda Cannon, Who Married a Davis

Likely child of Russell Cannon and Jane Campbell: Rhoda, said to have married a Davis: There is an unknown female born between 1775 and 1784 in the 1800 census for Russell Cannon's household in Greenville District, South Carolina. She may have been one of the 3 females in the 1790 census for Russell's family. This female is assumed to be daughter Rhoda. Because Russell Cannon and Jane Campbell probably married about 1778, and their son William was born in 1779, Rhoda's birth date is estimated at 1780/1784.

Note: Carter Cannon, brother, born about 1794, had three daughters who named daughters Rhoda. He and his wife, Sarah Tatum, named a daughter Rhoda.

There are three listings of the children of Russell Cannon and Jane Campbell in the following document.

MARCHBANKS, CANNON, FOWLER, FELTZ, SULLIVAN, STRATNER, HALL, HODGE FAMILIES.

From originally handwritten notes in possession of Mrs. J. Scott Rutherford (nee Katie Fay Marchbanks), 203 Cedar Street, Waxahachie, Texas 75165. Copied by Mrs. A. L. Feltenberger, Sept. 1968. The record was dictated to Mr. Harold D. Marchbanks by his grandfather Josiah Marchbanks and this recorded by Mr. B. F. Marchbanks after 1920 and dedicated to his parents, Thomas Calvin and Josephene Pauline (Sullivan) Marchbanks. The account details some Marchbanks history.

On p. 219, Cannon history begins. "Simeon [sic] Cannon came to America from England in Colonial days and located in Pickens Co., S. Carolina, he was the father of Russel Cannon and grandfather of Margaret Sophrona Cannon who in 1804 married Josiah Marchbanks. [Note: "Simeon" is Simcock, who was born in Virginia, according to all the research done so far.]

"Children of Russel Cannon and his wife a Miss Campbell:

- (1) William Cannon, married Cecelia Barton
- (2) James Cannon, married [blank]
- (3) Charles (or Carter), married [blank] Latimer {name, Sarah," written in later} [Her maiden name is now known to be Tatum.]
- (4) Elijah Cannon, married Dorcas Bowers
- (5) Ranson [sic] Cannon, married Malinda Fields
- (6) Julia Cannon (or Judy), married [blank] Kendrick
- (7) Margret Sophroni [sic], in 1804 married Josiah Marchbanks
- (8) (Patsy) Martha Cannon, m. Wm. Brown
- (9) Rodah Cannon, married [blank] Davis
- (10) Harriet Cannon, married Abraham Duke
- (11) Harrold Cannon, married Peggy Campbell. [Note: This last name is in error. An earlier record shows that Harold/ Herold Clark, not Cannon, married Peggy Campbell, identified as Jane (Campbell) Cannon's sister – Jane being the wife of Russell.

BOLING FELTZ MARCHBANKS HISTORY

Address on p. 1: Mrs. J. L. Thomas, 1520 Shasta Way, Placentia, CA 92670

“These records copied from the compiled records of Boling Feltz Marchbanks records (pg. 1 to 5 of original handwritten cc) – who lived at time of death in Waxachachie, Texas. He was a son of Thos. Calvin Marchbanks, who was son of Josiah Marchbanks, who was son of William Marchbanks, who was son of George Marchbanks, who came to America with his two sons, George, Jr., and William from Scotland – about 1716 – as best know at this time of writing. April – 1939.

On page 2 of the typescript is the statement: “At the writing of this is copy all of the children of Grandfather Josiah Marchbanks are dead except Uncle George and Uncle Bailey – Aug. 24, 1892 copied by BFM” {Boling Feltz Marchbanks}. On pp. 1-2 of these notes: “Josiah [Marchbanks] married second time to Margaret Cannon, daughter of Russel Cannon who was a son of Simon Cannon from England. Margaret Cannon’s mother was a Campbell..

“Russel Cannon had sons – William who married Sallie Burton.
James who married a Rowell or Powell.
Carter who married Latum. [Now known to be a Tatum]
Elijah who married Bowen.
Ransom who married a Fields.

“His daughters – Julia married a Kendrick.
Margaret (Margart) married Josiah Marchbanks.
Patsy married a Brown.

Rhoda or Rodah married a Davis.

and Harriet married a Duke.

“Herald Clark married Peggy Campbell, sister of Russel Cannon’s wife.”

From p. 9 of the same manuscript, typed from pp. 42-27 of handwritten manuscript:

“Simeon Cannon came from England to S.C. in colonial days, I am authorized to believe from many circumstances – although I am not in possession of the dates. This family located in Pickens Co., S. C. Simeon was the father of Russell Cannon. Russell Cannon was the father of Margaret Sophonia [sic] Cannon who became the 2nd wife of Josiah M. about 1804. Russell Cannon’s wife – mother of Margaret Sophonia – was a Jean Campbell. So, my Great Grandmother on the Cannon side of our house was a Campbell. [NOTE from C.G.: Simcock Cannon/Kennon was found in Virginia as early as 1751 in Amelia Co., then Prince Edward Co. with deeds in Lunenburg Co. and Charlotte Co., also. No evidence of his origins or parents have been found to date.]

“Children of Russell Cannon given here the proper or given names only.

1. William married Sally Benton
2. Jane (James) married a Powell.
3. Carter married a Latuns. [Now known to be a Tatum.]
4. Elijah married a Bowen. (Elijah is a popular family name.)
5. Ransome [sic] married a Fields.
6. Julia (Judith or Judy) married a Kendricks.
7. Margaret married Josiah Marchbanks.

8. Patsey married a Brown.

9. Rodah married a Davis.

10. Harriet married Abraham Duke.

11. Harold Clark married Campbell, a sister of Jean Campbell. Harold was not a son of Russell and Jean.” NOTE: Harold was actually the name of Jane/Jean Campbell’s sister’s son. The sister, Margret, married Isaac Clark. They also had two known daughters, Jane and Cynthia.
