

Sarah Cannon, daughter of Elijah C. Cannon and Sarah Elizabeth Christman, m 31 Aug 1851, Van Zandt Co., TX.

Sarah Elizabeth Christman died before Elijah's second marriage on 18 June 1858 in Van Zandt Co., TX.

No census located for Elijah C. Cannon in 1860. Elijah Cannon patented Scrip land in present Kennedale area in Tarrant Co. in 1862.

Sarah was not with her father in the 1870 census, which shows his second wife, Ophelia M. Kelly.

1870 Census of Precinct 3, Fort Worth P.O., Tarrant Co., Texas, p. 88/517, 447/649, line 4:

W. C. "	3	M	W				Texas			[1868]
J. Holland	26	M	W	Farmer			Miss			[1844]

1877-1881, Elijah C. Cannon died:

Case 21, Heirs of E. C. Cannon, Tarrant Co., TX, 1881 – begins in March 27, 1877. Mentions Elizabeth, Jane, and Rhoda, and Wm. C. Cannon, minors; Guardian: Ophelia M. Myrick. Later: J. A. & Rhoda Vinson, W. G. & Nancy J. Smith, F. W.? (J.M.?) & Lizzie Hudson. Sarah Hilburn.

NOTE FROM C.G.: I have been confused about whether or not Nancy E. and Elijah were the children of Sarah because Sarah's husband was enumerated twice in the 1880 census, each time with a different wife. I had thought that Nancy E. and Elijah were children of an earlier marriage for Nathaniel C. Hilburn before he married Sarah. I now think this was incorrect because a death record for Nancy names Sarah as her mother.

1880 Census of Handley, Tarrant Co., p. 20, 17/17, line 15 [enumerated 22 Sept. 1880]
