

Abel Kendrick and Juda Cannon Timeline

NOTE: DNA matches among descendants of Russell Cannon (son of Simcock Cannon) and Jeremiah Cannon (apparent brother of Simcock) with descendants of Abel Kendrick and Juda Cannon indicate that the match is in the Cannon line. The matches, along with records showing associations between members of their Kendrick and Cannon relatives and Juda's age, suggest she was a daughter of Simcock Cannon. Researchers, of course, may draw their own conclusions about this.

- 14 Mar 1759 Hanover Co., Virginia. Abel Kendrick was born. His parents are believed to be Thomas Kendrick, Sr., and Rebecca Palmer (documentation not known).¹
- Abt 1763 Probably Prince Edward Co., Virginia. Juda Cannon was born to Simcock Cannon and Jane Rudd. Records for Simcock Cannon show he was living there at this time.² Relationship is not proved. It is suggested by DNA matches at Ancestry.com.³
- 1779-1782 South Carolina and Georgia. Abel Kendrick served several tours of duty in the Revolutionary War.⁴
- 1780/1781 Union District, South Carolina. Abel Kendrick and Juda were married.⁵ Simcock Cannon, Juda's presumed father, was in this area by 1771.⁶
- 1782 Union District, South Carolina. Son, Martin, was born.⁷

³ DNA matches among descendants of Russell Cannon and Jeremiah Cannon with descendants of Abel Kendrick and Juda Cannon indicate that the match is in the Cannon line. Russell Cannon was the son of Simcock and apparently his oldest child. Jeremiah Cannon may have been a brother of Simcock. The DNA matches with descendants of Abel Kendrick and Juda Cannon, along with records showing associations between members of their Kendrick and Cannon relatives and Juda's age suggest she was a daughter of Simcock Cannon.
